SHE "How fortunate it is John Henry that Mr.
Fitch has opened the old
New York Clothing
House, next to Otterbacher's. You know he always gave you elegant fitting clothing and at reasonable prices."

HE "Yes he always kept the best and cheapest Clothing I could find. A man on Prospect street still wears an overcoat that Fitch sold him 20 years ago and they say the new stock that he has just put in beats anything ever seen hereabouts. Besides Fitch never resorts to the city humbug way of advertising, charging 49 or 59 cents for a 50 cent shirt and then make a man pay 99 cents for one that is worth only 75c. A city humbug house advertises suits worth $20 for $12.88 and some folks think they must be cheap because they have done some odd cent figuring, but Fitch sold the same goods for $8. By the way I saw some boys pants down there for twenty cents that will wear like iron. It's cheaper than you can buy the cloth. Get Tommy two pairs and and tell Al and Nelson, the two gentlemanly clerks, that the Cluetts Shirts and Crown Collars beat anything I ever had at twice the money, and those silk lined worsted suits are very nobby and cheap, and the silk hat for $5 sells for $6 in the city. Everything is new and stylish and cheap and marked in plain figures and one price to all, and no misrepresentation nor tricks allowed at the NEW YORK CLOTHING HOUSE.

All About the Happenings and Special Events in their Immediate Vicinity.

SULLIVAN.

May 14, '89.
The much needed rain has come at last.
We are very sorry to learn that Mrs.
Mary Walsh is so much worse.

There has been a slight fire at Mr. M.
Hahler's. Some clothing caught fire from the lamp, but the eldest son stamped it out on the floor, thereby scorching the carpet.

Mr. E. Mann is in ill health. His son Leslie Mann, from Shelby came to see him Sunday.

R. M. Parnely, of Cleveland, spent Sunday with relatives in town.
There is quite an excitement on South Main street over the rumor of the intended sale of the Larabee place.

Quite a large delegation from the Disciple church is going to the State Missionary Convention held at Youngstown, O.

Both the Congregational and Disciple Sunday schools expect to celebrate Children's day. Committees from both churches have been appointed to confer about union evening services.

RES.

Strictly Business.

What is the Swift Specific Company?
Who compose the organization? Is it a clap-net patent medicine humbug, gotten up to deceive and make money out of the people? These questions we think are answered by the officials and citizens of our city and state.

We know the gentlemen composing the Swift's Specific Company. They are prominent citizens of our State, and men of means and of high character and standing.

W. A. Hemphill, Pres. Capital City Bank
J. H. Porter, Pres. Merchant's Bank Paul Romare, Vice-Pres. Atlanta National Bank
L. J. Hill, Pres. Gate City Nat. Bank
J. B. Gordon, Governor of Georgia Alfred H. Colquitt, U. S. Senator J. T. Cooper, Mayor of Atlanta H. W. Grady, Editor Atlanta Constitution.

The Best in the World.
I think Swift's Specific is the best blood remedy in the world. I have known it to make some wonderful cures of patients who were considered incurable.

LA GRANGE.

May 13, '89.
Nearly half gone—mouth of May.
Rapidly growing—all vegetation.
Good time for farmers to prepare and seed the ground.

W. R. C. and G. A. R. are making preparations for Decoration.
Four weeks more of school—graduating exercises evening of June 7th. Several of alumni will take part. All of alumni who can be urged to be present.

Sorry to hear that friend Kinnison is laid up for repairs. Hope that he will be around again soon.

Robbins & Yeamans are moving into their new store.
P. H. Merriam has made an addition to his hardware store. Alonzo Ryan is building a bay window on his house. C. A. Andrews is making great improvement in his house and lot. Harry Hastings is building a new house.

La Grange is getting decidedly tony.
As nature bursts forth in all the magnificent exuberance of spring foliage several of our prominent buildings assume city airs in being adorned with a new coat of oil-of-well paint. What a sublime come down.

Arrived at our sanctum sanctorum this morning a copy of the new Oberlin Record. It certainly begins well. Success to it.

I almost forgot to say that Mr. M. found his buggy wheel in Grafton.

YOURS DAILY.

Never had a preparation a more appropriate name than Ayer's Hair Vigor.
When the capillary glands become enfeebled by disease, age, or neglect, the dressing imparts renewed life to the scalp, so that the hair assumes much of its youthful fullness and beauty.

PENFIELD.

May 13, '89.
The M. E. parsonage has been treated to a new coat of paint very much improving the appearance of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Long are visiting friends in Gallon.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McConaughy and children, of Beethoven, spent a night last week with his parents at the old farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bliss, of Avon, have recently been visiting their daughter Mrs. C.
A. Taylor and family.

Mrs. Geo. Piper who has been visiting her daughter and other relatives in this vicinity for the past few weeks returned a few days ago to her home in Shelby, Mich.

Weather very warm last week. A good shower Friday night.

Considerable of the corn crop has already been planted.

Miss Myrtle Parent, of Spencer, and Miss Ida Brinker, of Chatham, spent a day recently with their friend Miss Lottia Gardner.

JACK.

Little Women are as a rule, possessed of happy disposition; but when these sweet dispositions become soured and irritable, in consequence of the long train of distressing features peculiar to female complaints, they are then not companionable to say the least. It is the duty, not only of the little women, but of all women so afflicted, to bring about the subjection, and immediate removal, of these painful maladies. This is easily accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the great specific for "female weaknesses." It is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus or failing of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, and kindred ailments. All druggists.

HUNTINGTON.

May 13, '89.

Rev. J. Long will spend most of this week at Plymouth attending district conference, which commences there on Monday.

Mr. Fenwick will preach next Sabbath evening in the W. E. church.

Mr. Zadock Dirlam spent Sunday with his mother and brothers. He hopes to persuade his mother to go home with him to Clyde for a visit.

Mr. Wm. June is having a poor spell.

At the last meeting of the W. H. M. Society Mrs. Zarilda Rogers and Mrs. Abbie Smith were appointed delegates to the annual meeting at Wooster of the W. H. M.
Society of the North Ohio Conference.

Miss Effie Chapman made a short visit at home over a week ago.

Dr. Thomas spent last Sunday in Akron among friends.

Meeting on Tuesday of this week to make arrangements for Decoration day and there will be another on next Monday evening as they always adjourn for one week for committees to report.

Mrs. Peter Finkle's mother is visiting her.

Mrs. Sarah Brown and her son Frank visited Grandma Blakelee last week.

Obituary of Mrs. Clifford next week.

Milo Smith, Nathan Chapman, and Tasso Phelon spent last Thursday in Norwalk.

Miss Evelyn Curtiss is visiting at Mrs.
Eglin's.

Mr. Albert Laug was taken with a very severe pain in his left side Sunday night which would not yield to remedies. They sent a telegram to David. Friends thought unless he had relief he could not stand it during the night.

There was a dance at Squire Phelon's on Saturday evening last. About twenty-five were present; they report a very pleasant time.

Don't let anybody mislead you, the date of all the 19 big shows combined is at Wellington, May 21. The juvenile Roman hippodrome connected with John Robinson's 10 big shows, 4 ring circus and 3 menageries in one is a brand new feature and given by 60 beautiful children and 60 miniature ponies. Every conceivable kind of a race is given, consisting of 4 pony chariot races, hurdles, jockey, standing flat and free-for-all races. Besides, to give zest to the entertainment, 20 noted male and female jockeys and 20 thoroughbred Kentucky racers will ride the most daring of steep chases and chariot races, the man against the horse race, the ponderous elephant, camel, buffalo and elk races will all help to amuse.
